Respondent Citigroup did not file a properly executed Submission Agreement.

CASE SUMMARY

Claimants asserted the following causes of action: (1) securities fraud and common law fraud; (2) breach of fiduciary duty; (3) securities recommended and purchased were unsuitable under Washington, D.C. law, federal law, and FINRA Conduct Rules; (4) negligence; (5) breach of contract; (6) control person liability; and, (7) negligent supervision. The causes of action relate to alleged recommendations and trades to invest the proceeds of a trust and IRA which had been at another entity but were transferred to accounts at Citigroup on behalf of Claimants. These recommendations and trades resulted in allegedly unsuitable and unauthorized trading of numerous unspecified securities in Claimants' accounts. The causes of action also relate to alleged recommendations to cash in two life insurance policies which resulted in tax liabilities for Claimants.

Unless specifically admitted in their Answer, Respondents denied the allegations made in the Statement of Claim and asserted various affirmative defenses.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Claimants requested: (1) compensatory damages of approximately $480,000.00, or a greater amount as determined by the undersigned arbitrators (the "Panel"); (2) interest assessed up to the time of payment of the award; (3) opportunity loss of investment funds damages; (4) punitive damages; (5) costs, FINRA fees and attorney's fees incurred by Claimants in order to prosecute this action; and, (6) such other further relief to which Claimants may be justly entitled as determined by the Panel.

Respondents requested that the Panel dismiss the Statement of Claim in its entirety and that they be awarded their costs.

OTHER ISSUES CONSIDERED AND DECIDED

The Panel acknowledges that they have each read the pleadings and other materials filed by the parties.

Respondents did not file with FINRA Dispute Resolution properly executed Submission Agreements but are required to submit to arbitration pursuant to the Code of Arbitration Procedure (the "Code") and, having answered the claim, appeared and testified at the hearing, are bound by the determination of the Panel on all issues submitted.

The parties have agreed that the Award in this matter may be executed in counterpart copies or that a handwritten, signed Award may be entered.

AWARD

After considering the pleadings, the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, the Panel has decided in full and final resolution of the issues submitted for determination as follows:

Respondents are liable, jointly and severally, and shall pay to Claimants compensatory damages in the sum of $124,156.00 plus interest at the Washington, D.C. legal statutory rate accruing from January 13, 2009 until the date of the Award.

Any and all claims for relief not specifically addressed herein, including Claimants' requests for punitive damages and attorneys' fees, are denied.
